Madrid, July 28. N. S.

THE King of Spain continues his Resolution of going from hence about the middle of the next month to meet his Queen at Barcelona. He has given the Government of Cadiz to Don Francisco Ronquillo, in whose Place Don Francisco Matanza is made Corregidor of Madrid. The Duke of Arcos has presented a Memorial to the King, representing the Inconveniencies which may arise from giving to the Dukes and Peers of France the Rank of Grandees of Spain, which Honour ought to be enjoyed by none but Natives of this Kingdom. 'Tis said, the Marquis de Leganez intends to resign his Office of Captain-General of the Coasts of Andalusia, being dissatisfied at his being put under the Orders of the Count d'Estrees. The Marquis de Villette is arrived at Cadiz with 5 French Men of War from Brest, to join the Count d'Estrees's Squadron in that Port.

Mittaw, August 1. The Swedish Army is encamped at present about 4 or 5 miles from hence, and the King of Sweden has his head Quarters at a Place called Eckau. The Duke of Holstein Gottorp is arrived in the Swedish Camp from Pomeren. The Loss which the Swedes sustained in the late Action near Riga, is said not to amount to above 200 Men. The Saxons who are in Garrison in the Dunamunder Fort have begun to Capitulate. 'Tis confirmed that the Saxons have blown up the Fortifications of Kockenhausen, and abandoned that Place, and are retired to Birzen in Lithuania; and 'tis said the Muscovite Auxiliary Forces are marching home again.

Vienna, August 3. The Ratifications of the Treaty with Denmark were exchanged yesterday, and in pursuance thereof, the Danish Forces which are at present in Saxony will forthwith march to the Rhine. The Treaty with the Bishop of Wurtzburgh for his putting 4000 Men into the Emperor's Service, is finished. Count [illegible], Field-Marshal General, [illegible] for Holland. [illegible] Commander of our Garrison. They write from Transilvania that the Imperial Forces in that Province are drawn together, with Orders to encamp.

Francfort, August 11. The Forces of the Circle of the Upper Rhine are drawing together, and are to join those of the Circles of Swabia and Franconia. Several Regiments of the Elector Palatine's Forces are marching from the Palatinate to the Lower Rhine, to enter into the Service of the States General. The Sieur Obrecht, who was the Dutchess of Orleans's Plenipotentiary at the Conferences for adjusting Matters between the Elector Palatine and her Royal Highness, died lately at Strasburgh. The Imperialists are fortifying Offenburgh.

Cologne, August 12. Our Garrison was reinforced this day by several Companies of the Forces of the Circle of the Lower Rhine, and care is taken to put this City into a good Posture of Defence; The like is doing at Juliers. The Bishop of Raab arrived here yesterday from Vienna, being sent by the Emperor to the Elector of Cologne. The Earl of Galloway is arrived at Dusseldorp. Monsieur des Alleurs, the French Envoy, has been to confer with Count Tallard, and returned yesterday to the Elector of Cologne's Court at Bon. Several Companies of his Electoral Highness's new-raised Forces are entred into Bon, where they are to remain in Garrison.

Nimeguen, August 13. The Dutch Horse which was cantoned in the Upper Betuwe, began to march the 11th Instant to the Mooker-Heyde near this Place, and the last Regiment arrived there this day; The Foot quartered in these Parts are to begin their march the 15th towards the same Place, where there will be a Camp of 25000 Men. The French Forces which were quartered at Ruremonde and Venloe, are marched towards Gelder; And a Body of the King of Prussia's Forces, and the Elector Palatine's, are encamped near the River Roer.

Loo, August 16. On Saturday last the Baron Schwartz, Lieutenant-General of the Bishop of Munster's Forces, came to Dieren with a Compliment to His Majesty from the said Bishop. The next day, in the evening, His Majesty went over to Doesburgh, to review the Prince of Hesse's Regiment, and two other Regiments of Foot, of which that Garrison consists, and to see the Works that are marked out for fortifying that Place, which was dismantled by the French in the late War. Yesterday morning the Earl of Marlborough returned to the Hague: His Majesty having hunted the Stag in his way from Dieren, arrived here in the evening, and finds himself very well after the Chace.

My

My Lord Cutts has been to wait on His Majesty, and is gone to his Command of Major-General of the English Forces in these Parts.

Hague, August 16. Count d'Avaux, the French Ambassador, presented a Memorial to the States the 12th Instant, by which he took his leave of them in very obliging Terms, and the States returned an Answer in the same Style. They made him the usual Present of a Gold Chain and Medal; and the next day the Ambassador set out from hence for Paris, leaving his Secretary here. Don Quiros, the Spanish Ambassador, accompanied him as far as Rotterdam, where he went on board a Yacht which is to carry him to Antwerp. Monsieur d'Auverkerk took the usual Oaths yesterday in the Assembly of the States-General, as General of the Horse of this State, and went the same evening to the Camp at Oosterhout near Breda. The Brigadier-Generals Triesem and Goor are made Major Generals of the Foot in the Service of this State.

Paris, August 17. N. S. Upon the News this Court received from Italy, of the Germans having passed the Mincio, the Marshal de Villeroy was sent for, and he arrived at Marli the 13th Instant, and the next day went Post to Italy, where he is to Command in Chief, the King being much dissatisfied with Marshal Catinat's Conduct; And Orders are sent to stop all Couriers to Italy till Marshal Villeroy's Arrival there. The King has likewise ordered 10000 Men more to march to Italy from Alsace, and has named 4 Lieutenant-Generals to Command under Marshal Villeroy, who are, the Count de Revel, the Marquis de Barbezieres, the Marquis de Villars, and the Marquis de Crequi; and 4 Marshals de Camp, viz. the Chevalier de Bezons, Monsieur d'Albergotti, the Duke de Villeroy, and the Marquis de Mongon. The last Advices from Italy, which are of the 8th Instant, say, the French were very much alarmed at Prince Eugene's marching towards Milan; that thereupon Prince Vaudemont and Count Tesse went Post thither, and the greatest part of the French Army advanced to the Oglio to dispute the Passage of that River; But Prince Eugene seeing the sudden Retreat of the French Army towards the Milanese, upon his seeming to move that way, instead of passing the Oglio, marched back towards the Mantuan, and took Castiglione, (in which were 5 or 600 French, who were all made Prisoners at Discretion) as also Solferino, and Castel-Guifre; and when these Letters came away, he was encamped at Medoli. The French seeing their Error, the Forces on the Oglio had Orders to rejoin the Duke of Savoy and Monsieur Catinat. These Troops have suffered very much by their long and hasty Marches. Prince Eugene is now so posted that he is entirely Master of the Mantuan on both sides the Mincio, except the Town of Mantua. There appears a General Dissatisfaction in the Country against the French, and several Persons are daily Imprisoned on that account. Prince Eugene expected from Germany a Reinforcement of 10000 Men, which are supposed to have joined him before this time. The French Troops that came lately into the Dutchy of Limburgh from the Upper Rhine commanded by Marshal Villeroy, are now put under the Command of Count Tallard, and are ordered back to Alsace. The Dutchess of Burgundy is past all Danger. The French Court removes this day to Meudon, and goes the 20th to Versailles. Count Zinzendorf, the Emperor's Envoy, is on his departure home.

Deale, August 9. The Wentworth, the Colchester, the Fame, and the Loyal Merchant, are arrived in the Downes from the East-Indies; as are likewise the John and Hopewell from Virginia, and several other homeward-bound Merchant Ships.

Westminster, August 7. The Parliament met this day, and was further Prorogued till Thursday the 18th of September next.

A General Court of The English Company Trading to the East-Indies will be held at Skinners-Hall on Tuesday the 12*th Instant, at* 10 in the Forenoon, upon Special Business.
